SEEDS FOR FALL PLANTING

SEED WHEAT . . .

"CERTIFIED" VIGO—The demand for this fine, soft winter-wheat will far exceed the supply. We have only a small quantity of Vigo and we would suggest that you get your supply now. GOOD SEED wheat will be hard to find before this season is over.

BARLEY . . .

"CERTIFIED" B-400—A NEW VARIETY just released by the Missouri Experiment Station. Has outstanding yield record. Made highest yield of all varieties tested over 5-year period. A Bearded-Winter type. There will not be enough B-400 to go around.

KY #1 BEARDED WINTER—One of the old standbys. This particular seed comes from a man who has been producing this strain of barley for about 12 years. We have a very small supply!

RYE . . .

BALBO—Still the most popular rye on the market. Order early!

ALFALFA . . .

IDAHO GRIMM—Grimm has always been a favorite type of alfalfa in areas where winter-hardiness is of great importance, but in the past few years there has not been too much Grimm on this market. Order early if you have a demand for Grimm.

WASHINGTON—This is a strain of Common Alfalfa which should be very satisfactory in areas where Kansas Common is popular. Northern grown.

OKLAHOMA (approved)—Still in great demand and still holding at a good, strong price due to scarcity of Kansas Common and other Central and Northern strains of Common Alfalfa.

ARIZONA ALFALFA—Very attractively priced. A good buy for rotation pastures, green manure, etc.
